ADI TEAM MEMBERS TRAVEL TO CALIFORNIA FOR CERTIFICATION

January, 2010 - SPRINGFIELD, VA - Steve Williamson and Tom Bolton of ADI Construction's project management team traveled to Anaheim, California in August, 2009 to attend the three day American Society for Healthcare Engineering (ASHE) Annual Conference and Exhibition. Both passed the required exam and received American Hospital Association "Healthcare Construction Certificates" (HCC).

By obtaining these certificates, ADI strengthens its commitment to Healthcare Construction and expands its professionalism in the industry. To take the exam and receive the certificate, both Steve and Tom had to be members in good standing of the American Society for Healthcare Engineering (ASHE), attend the three day ASHE Annual Conference and Exhibition, and meet other requirements.
